CLEAR OUT ARCHANGEL

Casualties in North Russia Among Americans 20 Officers and 536 Men.

Special Despatch to THE SUN.
WASHINGTON, June 7.—All the National Guard and National Army troops have now returned from overseas, Gen.
March, chief of staff, announced to-day.
The army in France has been reduced to 294,745 officers and men, and even the Regular Army is beginning to return, the Sixth Regular Division being on its way.
"Our demobilization figures," Gen.
March said, "so far as they have been reported to date are 2,391,635."

Gen. March also announced that 50,000 recruits for the army of occupation had been enrolled, the official reports showing a total of 48,023, with the three year period of enlistment continuing the favorite over the one year.

Referring to the withdrawal of the American troops from Archangel, Gen.
March said:
"The organizations coming out from Archangel, which left there on June 3, are Companies B, G, I, M and the Machine Gun Company of the 33rd Infantry, consisting of fifty officers and 1,609 men. They sailed direct for Hartford. There also sailed at the same time two officers and 323 men for England. All the remaining troops of the original Archangel contingent are expected to be out inside of two weeks, leaving temporarily the railroad engineers, who were sent up for a special purpose this spring."

By the Associated Press.
ARCHANGEL, June 6 (delayed).—According to the latest arrangements, all the American forces, including the engineers, will be withdrawn from the Ekomolka, the winter port of Archangel.

This contingent is expected to leave in about ten days.

The total casualties of the American forces in north Russia to date have been twenty officers and 536 men. An official announcement to-day divides the casualties as follows:

Killed in action or died of wounds—Five officers, 325 men.
Missing in action—No officers, 35 men.
Died of disease or accident—Three officers, 77 men.
Wounded—Twelve officers, 325 men.

Battleship New Jersey and Transport Mongolia Arrive.

BOSTON, June 7.—Almost 6,000 overseas troops reached here to-day on the battleship New Jersey and the transport Mongolia. The New Jersey had 1,254 officers and men aboard, comprising the 31st and 34th Machine Gun Battalions and Infantry companies. Many of the gunners are from Erie, Pa. and they found a committee of ten from that city, headed by Mayor Miles B. Kitts, waiting on the pier to welcome them.

On board the Mongolia were Major-Gen. Charles H. Martin, commander of the Nineteenth Division, and Brig.-Gen.
G. G. Alexander, commander of the 10th Infantry Brigade, with headquarters outfits, and the 35th and 36th Infantry regiments, virtually complete.
The Mongolia's total was 4,547 officers and men.

WOMAN IS CITED FOR D. S. C.

Wounded Red Cross Nurse With U. S. Forces Showed Bravery.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—One woman was included in the list of citations made public to-day by the War Department as the basis for awards of the Distinguished Service Cross. Miss Jane Jeffrey, an Englishwoman serving as an American Red Cross nurse, was cited for extraordinary bravery in action. While on duty in a hospital she was wounded by an exploding aerial bomb, but refused to leave her post, "though suffering great pain; her devotion to the task of helping others was inspiring to her associates."

Col. Harry S. Howland of Pasadena, Cal., won the cross by capturing a German post with a "mixed detachment, partly non-combatants," which he had led through a heavy fog, far in advance of the American combat troops.

Other awards of the D. S. C. announced were:

Capt. Maurice J. McGuire, Scranton, Pa.; First Lieut. Harrison A. Dickinson (deceased), Springfield, Ill.; Second Lieutenants Robert G. Gurner, Anderson, S. C.; Henry J. Dick, Burton, Kan.; John C. Lee (deceased), Chicago, and John M. Miller, Catlettsburg, Ky.; Sergeants Benjamin Prager, Pittsburgh; James Jackson, Calumet, Mich.; William J. Ingold, Altoona, Pa.; Thomas D. Curfman (deceased), Cincinnati, Ohio; Corporals Eugene McIntyre, Chicago, and Joseph A. O'Leary, St. Louis; Privates Horace Smotherman, Chicago;

B. Hambley, Watkins, Iowa; Steve Zappa, Dwight, Ill.; Richard W. Holland, Rend, Ill.; William J. Williams, apolis; Fred H. Meyer, 222 West 144th street, New York city, and John H.

TENTH RELIEF SHIP ARRIVES AT GALATZ

Rumanians Receive 5,000,000 Pounds of Supplies.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Arrival of the American Red Cross relief ship, Lake Elizabeth, at Galatz, with 5,000,000 pounds of supplies for the Rumanians, the tenth Red Cross relief vessel to reach that country, was announced today at headquarters here of the Atlantic Division, American Red Cross.
According to the cable message to Red Cross officials, the arrival of the Lake Elizabeth, chartered from the United States Shipping Board, was attended by a welcome that was both enthusiastic and pathetic. Rumanian peasants, in great numbers, many of them mere skeletons, lined the shore and at sight of the American flag on the ship that was bringing them food began to cheer.
At Soutina, near the mouth of the Danube, where the Lake Elizabeth anchored for a brief period, a ragged, hungry, barefooted crowd, made up for the most part of women and children, gathered on the dock and eagerly awaited the distribution of the supplies.
On all sides famished children and saint-eyed men and women clamored for bread. An English woman, one of the most forlorn figures in the crowd, said she was starving. In a short time the Red Cross workers were passing out enormous quantities of condensed milk, meat, soup, chocolate and other nourishing articles. Socks, shirts and clothing were distributed among the grateful ones who were soon smiling through their tears. The crowd sent the Lake Elizabeth on its way up the Danube with many blessings.

The supplies were unloaded at Galatz for distribution in those parts of Rumania where the misery is greatest.
The American Red Cross has more than 100 workers in the country. It has delivered millions of pounds of food, medicines and clothing in Rumania, several hundred thousand yards of cloth, and one hundred sewing machines belonging among the supplies. The work of the American Red Cross in Rumania, and that of the United States Food Administration, which is distributing food and fats, has won the highest praise of the royal family, government officials, press and people.

BAKER UP FIRST IN WAR COST INQUIRY

Gen. Lord Also to Appear Before Committee, Which Meets This Week.

DEEP DELVING PLANNED

Investigators' Sessions, to Last Weeks, May Make a Congress Record.

Special Despatch to THE SUN.
WASHINGTON, June 7.—The special committee of the House which is to investigate the war time activities of the War Department held its first meeting to-day. Although it was routine in character, it was evident that the Republican members at least are anxious to be seen in the enormous task as soon as possible. If the committee goes to the bottom of all the Department's war activities, as its members anticipate, it probably will be the most comprehensive investigation ever held in either branch of Congress, lasting for weeks and filling thousands of pages of testimony.

The meeting was designed largely to obtain from members their preferences of divisions or bureaus of the Department into which they would like to delve. As was announced on the floor during debate on the resolution proposing the investigation, there will be five subcommittees to do the work, each composed of three members. Thus the vast machine of the War Department will be gone through from root to cellar.

Representative Graham (Ill.), chairman of the committee, hopes to be able to name some of the subcommittees at a meeting on Monday. As soon as this is done the actual work of investigation will start, with Secretary Baker and Brig.-Gen. Lord, director of finance in the War Department, as the first witnesses. At its meeting to-day the committee adopted a resolution asking the House for unlimited funds for the employing of counsel, accountants and clerical help. Chairman Graham will ask the House to adopt the resolution next week.

At a joint meeting of the Republican steering committees of the two houses to-day it was decided that for the present at least no effort would be made by one branch to make an investigation of any Government department or any activity which the other already has undertaken to examine.

In the face of the decision it appears only that there should be no needless duplication of investigation and that thereby also the expense would be cut down considerably, something which party leaders hope to convince the country is hereafter to be one of the foundation stones of the Republican policy in Congress. The plan already has gone so far that it was said there would be no investigation of the War Department on the Senate side of the Capitol.

Not even the leaders know at present just how many investigations there probably will be, but few of the departments are likely to escape after the appropriation bills which failed last session and which are needed before July 1 have been passed and sent to the White House. The steering committees decided to have the House pass all appropriation measures by June 15.

HALT ON ARMY CONTRACTORS.

Comptroller Objects to Blanket Orders for Material.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Comptroller of the Treasury Warwick notified Secretary Baker to-day that "it is stated by you the War Department is permitting its contractors to procure material without any agreement as to price it is a condition requiring correction."

The War Department had asked for a ruling as to the payment of $100,000 demurrage asked by dealers who furnished sand and gravel at New York last year to contractors who gave blanket orders for the material, the price for which was fixed later by the War Industries Board's price committee. Payment was ordered.

NAVY AID ALASKA'S "FLEET" VICTIMS.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Naval ships carrying surgeons and large quantities of medical supplies have been despatched to the Bristol Bay region in Alaska to combat an epidemic of influenza which threatens about 5,000 persons, most of them employed in the salmon canning industry.
